

SPECIFIC TAX ON POLES IS CUT OUT BY ALDERMEN

With That One Change, License Ordinance as Passed by Council Is Concurred In.

MONEY FOR STREET REPAIRS

Department Makes Runs to Three Small Fires—Company Awarded Contract for Reproduction of Crater Battle at Confederate Reunion.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
PETERSBURG, VA., April 17.—At a called session of the Common Council last night the license tax ordinance, as amended by the Board of Aldermen, was concurred in. The Aldermen changed one section of the ordinance as passed by the Council. The board cut out the specific tax of $1.50 on every pole of the Petersburg Telephone Company and of the Virginia Railway and Power Company in the city, leaving the tax on the telephone poles. But for the fact that a deadlock might result between the two bodies, the Council might have insisted on retaining the section it had adopted as approved by the Finance Committee. The Council concurred in the appropriation of $2,500, made by the board for general repair work on street roadways.

In the Police Court.
Nine colored boys were prisoners in the Police Court this morning, having been arrested for stealing metal from the Norfolk and Western Railway. Because of their youth they were sentenced to be whipped.

Frank Tansey and Fred Willis, negroes, were sentenced to jail for six months each as vagrants. The sentence carries with it work on the roads. While in the station cell they rebbed a colored prisoner of the money he owned, pulling off his shoes to get it. For this, Tansey was given an additional sentence of ninety days, and Willis sixty days.

W. S. Lawlin, white, was fined $50 for auto speeding in the streets, and was fined $20 and sent to jail for thirty days for carrying a concealed weapon.

Three Small Fires.
About 10 o'clock this morning the two-story frame dwelling and furniture repair shop on East Bank Street, owned by W. E. Armstrong and occupied by Walter Stokely, colored, caught fire from sparks. The building was damaged to the extent of between $200 and $300, and the personal effects about $100.

About 12 o'clock a tenant dwelling in the rear of Commerce Street, owned by the Virginia Railway and Power Company, and occupied by James Hall, colored, caught fire from sparks, and was slightly damaged.

A little later a small house in the rear of Seward's Trunk factory caught fire, but was very slightly damaged. The quick work of the Fire Department saved all these buildings.

Reproduce Crater Battle.
F. P. Warner, manager of the Virginia Fireworks Company, of Petersburg, has been notified that his company has been awarded the contract to reproduce the battle of the Crater during the Confederate Reunion in Richmond.

The spectacle will be given at the State Park Grounds, with military companies assisting.

Bank of City Point.
The charter of the Bank of City Point, with a maximum capital of $100,000, and with F. H. Jones as president, and B. H. Jones as secretary, both of this city and both officials of the National Bank of Petersburg, is a matter of interest in financial circles and will be of great importance and convenience to the people of City Point and the thousands of employees of the Du Pont plant. The owners will erect a suitable bank building, will place experienced men in charge and will begin operations at an early date.

Young Stranger Dead.
A young stranger, apparently about twenty-five years old, whose name and home have not been ascertained, died this morning in the Petersburg Hospital of injuries sustained yesterday afternoon by falling from a stack at the Du Pont works. He never regained consciousness after the fall. The body has been turned over to J. T. Morris & Son, undertakers, who will endeavor to find his friends.

Corner-Stone Laid.
The corner-stone of the annex of Etrick M. E. Church was laid with masonic ceremonies by Blandford Lodge No. 2. The address was delivered by the Rev. R. D. Wilkinson, D. D., of Washington Street Church.

New Hotel Opened.
The new Jefferson Hotel on North Scamora Street, is about completed, and will open up for business on Monday, with fifty rooms ready for patrons. The hotel is fitted up in handsome style, with all modern improvements.

James River Night Line.
The Long Island Sound steamer Montauk has been chartered by the Old Dominion line, and is now running on the route between Richmond and City Point and Norfolk, on the James River night line service. She will be on the route until the steamers Brandon and Berkley are overhauled.

News Notes of Interest.
The monthly meeting of the Methodist Sunday School Association of Petersburg and vicinity will be held to-morrow afternoon at Mt. Airy. J. Jerome Dorton, colored, arrested here on suspicion of being William Watkins, a fugitive from justice in Warren County, N. C., was released from custody yesterday afternoon. The sheriff of Warren County came to look at him and declared him not to be the man wanted. The likeness between Dorton and Watkins is very remarkable.

Washington Irving Smith, for over thirty years a Mason and Knight Templar, was buried yesterday afternoon with the honors of the order.

E. E. Goodman, of Sussex County, died yesterday afternoon at his home near Stony Creek.

German Military Doctor With Turkish Army in Desert

Dr. Ingells, the German medical chief, in charge of the Turkish army, is seen here in the desert on the back of "Hedshin," the biggest camel in the Turkish army. The soldier near-by belongs to the Tenuiss tribe and is the doctor's personal attendant. He mounts behind the doctor.

veying the last of a plate of ham an' to his mouth, via the broad side of his knife, when Bobby Peach, the clam man, came in, and was so glad to see Luke that he slapped him on the back. Luke gave a gulp, choked slightly and then greeted Bobby Peach as if nothing had happened.

The incident might have passed off if the proprietor hadn't missed the knife, which happened to be a new one. Luke confessed that he had swallowed it when Bobby Peach slapped him on the back.

The proprietor's feelings were ruffled and he called in Frank Roth, the biggest policeman in Manhattan. Roth said Luke didn't have criminal intent when he swallowed the knife, and so he couldn't arrest him. Suddenly he had an idea. Going to the door, he called Joe Murry, another cop, almost as big as himself. The two of them grabbed Luke, set him upside down, and grasping his ankles, shook him violently. Luke shouted for help. Maybe it was his cry that did the business, for suddenly he gave a mighty gulp and the knife clattered to the floor.

All this happened in the Battery "Ritz."

LONDON, April 17.—Lord Curzon has sent the following letter to the Associated Press:
"Lord Curzon of Kedleston would like it to be known that a poem denouncing the German army in Belgium, and praying for vengeance upon them, which has been widely circulated in America, and over his name, is not written by him, but by a Belgian poet, E. Cammaerts. Lord Curzon merely translated it in the Observer, a newspaper, where the original appeared."

COMB SAGE TEA IN HAIR TO DARKEN IT

It's Grandmother's Recipe to Keep her Locks Dark, Glossy, Thick.

The old-time mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur for darkening gray, streaked and faded hair is grandmother's treatment, and folks are again using it to keep their hair a good, even color, which is quite sensible, as we are living in an age when a youth's appearance is of the greatest advantage.

Nowadays, though, we don't have the troublesome task of gathering the sage and the mussy mixing at home. All drug stores sell the ready-to-use product called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" for about 50 cents a bottle. It is very popular because nobody can discover it has been applied. Simply moisten your comb or a soft brush with the mixture and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is that, besides beautifying and darkening the hair after a few applications, it also produces that soft lustre and appearance of abundance which is so attractive; besides, prevents dandruff, itching scalp and falling hair.—Advertisement.
